“ Dear Angela and Steven
Our deepest sympathies to you and your families in the loss of both parents in such a short time. I truly had a lot of respect and gratitude for your Mom when I got to know her through her many years of working at Gisele's. The world was a better place when they were both in it. Your mom always looked after everyone who needed her assistance or helping hand.
They have now been reunited to being together once again. Rest In Peace
