

Paul King

February 1, 1949 - March 13, 2023

With love in our hearts and memories to last a lifetime, we remember our beacon of light Ignatius Paul King. Paul was called home on Monday March 13th after 9 years of living with cancer.

You will be hard pressed to find anyone who knew Paul that doesn't have a heartfelt story to tell about his abundant kindness and generosity. No or I can't just wasn't a part of Paul's vocabulary. Dedicating his working years to employment in the coal mine he came away with lifelong friends and stories that he loved to tell. He took great pleasure in other people's happiness so you were assured to hear a joke or two just so he could hear you laugh. Paul will most fondly be remembered for his passion for his horses. He raised and showed his horses all while beaming with pride yet humble to his core. Paul had a calming way with his soft hands and the evidence showed when all he had to do is whistle and his beloved horses would hang on his every word. Paul would never see anyone stuck and during horse show season he would be quick to lend a piece harness or even a horse or two just so a fellow showman could "get out of the barn"

Missing Paul's presence are his best friend and wife of 48 years Patricia, Sons Curtis (Jennifer) and Patrick (Hannah)

He also survived by his sisters Gloria Nicholson, Claudia (Earl) Warhus,

Celesta Johnston, Miriam (Tom) Boudreau, his brothers Chicky (Linda) King, Kennedy (Julia) King, sisters-in-law Ann-Marie King, Cathy King, sister-in-law Lorraine in Boston, brother-in-law Davey Beaton nieces, nephews and cousins.

Besides his parents, Paul is predeceased by his siblings Monica, Meleta, Gerard in infancy, Damian, Wayne, Audrey, Pius and Coletta, brothers-in-law Jack Nicholson, Danny Hanley, Nelson Johnston, sister-in-law Carol and several nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life will be held at the Bras d'or Hall on Saturday March 25th from 2-4 pm.
