“ A memory I have shared with many people is this: I once left my purse in a cart at Walmart yrs ago. I went back in the store to customer service. The lady told me yes my purse was turned in! I said I wish I knew who did so I could thank him. She pointed and said “he is right over there” I was sure happy that it was Bill! To an eternally grateful person he humbly said: “I did what I ought to have done” Dan and Debbie Harnish
